

Peace of Mind Rental Protection

Terms and conditions:

Peace of Mind Rental Protection is not insurance. The renter is responsible for any loss of or damage to the rented equipment and items and for their return in the same condition for which they were received, except for ordinary wear and tear. If you choose Peace of Mind Rental Protection, however, Cooke Rentals agrees to waive our right to recover from you the amount of loss or damage to the rented equipment and items. The following provisions and exclusions will apply.

Accidental damage:

Rental items sustaining accidental damage are fully covered, with no deductible.

The renters liability for damage to the rented equipment will not be waived in the following circumstances:

- Damage resulting from negligence, abuse, and/or reckless operation.
- Damage resulting from neglect or failure to perform preventative maintenance (eg. Adjustments, lubrication, fluid level checks, fluid changes).
- Damage to tires or rubber tracks.
- Damage to trailers resulting from loading, unloading, or transporting.
- Damage to equipment/items in transit.
- Items not used in accordance with the manufacturer's operating instructions.
- Any use or conduct that is in violation of the Rental Contract.

Theft and vandalism:

Rented items are covered for theft and vandalism. The renters liability for loss of or damage to rented equipment will not be waived unless all with the following provisions are met:

- Loss of rental items are subject to a $2500 deductible per item.
- There is no coverage for loss due to conversion, or failure to comply with the terms of the Rental Contract.
- Coverage requires that the renter must notify law enforcement authorities and Cooke Rentals within twenty-four hours of the discovery of a loss. Coverage also requires that a copy of the police report be submitted to Cooke Rentals within twenty-four hours of its availability.

Requirements to decline:

A certificate of insurance that identifies Cooke Rentals, Inc. as Loss Payee on your equipment policy and as additional insured on your General Liability policy must be submitted prior to rental, otherwise purchase of Peace of Mind Rental Protection will be required.
